

Reference Number: FOI202122490
From: Other
Date: 21 February 2022
Subject: Usage of laryngeal mask for surgical procedures

Q1 What types of surgical procedures do you use the laryngeal mask in?

A1 We use laryngeal masks for a number of different procedures, including:

- a. Orthopaedic fractures, nailing / plating etc
- b. Manipulations under anaesthetic
- c. Plastic surgical repairs of nerves / tendons.
- d. Gynaecomastia etc
- e. Removal of lesions/ scar revisions
- f. General surgery, non abdominal cavity operations such as orchidopexy /colonoscopy
- g. Dental removal / restoration of teeth.
- h. Laser surgery to skin
- i. Oncology intrathecal injections
- j. ENT Grommet insertion
- k. MRI scans
- l. Interventional Radiology sclerotherapy

Q2 What type of laryngeal masks dose the trust stock?

A2 The trust stocks AMBU laryngeal masks at present